

Port of Rauma

Suomen Viljava Ltd Grain Terminal Services

Rauma port silo is the westernmost grain terminal of Suomen Viljava Ltd, with a total capacity of 120,000 tonnes. The annual throughput is about 200,000 tonnes.

Grain Terminal Services in the Port of Rauma

Suomen Viljava Ltd in the port of Rauma has experience in handling grain, malt, peas and soya beans. There are 42 silos for 3,000 tonnes each and 23 silos for 600 tonnes each.

Rauma is located on the western coast of Finland and the port is kept open by ice-breakers during cold winters.

The Port of Rauma grain terminal is a secure and well protected area meeting international ISPS security requirements.

Suomen Viljava's services comply with ISO 9001 and GTP standards, and are certified by USDA to store and handle organic grain.

Suomen Viljava Ltd is Finland's largest grain handling and storage company. It has stores and silos at 21 locations, five of them in ports. The total storage capacity is 1.4 million tonnes.

Our service and marketing personnel can be reached directly during office hours, 7.00–15.30 (GMT +2):

Simo Salovaara
 Silo manager
 Ulkopetäjäs
 26100 Rauma, Finland
 phone +358-01-3464 670
 simo.salovaara@
 suomenviljava.fi

Hannu Korttesmaa
 Marketing manager
 Kielotie 5 B
 01300 Vantaa, Finland
 phone +358-01-3464 204
 hannu.korttesmaa@
 suomenviljava.fi

PORT OF RAUMA FACTS

Capacity in tonnes	8 h/day	16h/day	24h/day
Loading	1,500	3,000	4,500
Unloading	1,200	2,400	3,600

Depth of fairway leading to port	10 m
Max height of loading pipe, from sea level	14 m
Max reach of loading pipe, from the quay	14 m
Min reach of loading pipe, from the quay	0 m
Max operating range of the loader on quay	135 m
Maximum wind speed for carrying out loading	20 m/s
Water density 1.002 – 1.003 brackish water

ISO 9001

